Robin,

Thanks. Based on today's discussion the summary section will be shorter in the revision. Hopefully that works.

Hi,

I just wanted to loop back with a note about timing. If we can get this in final form by 10am on Monday it shouldn't be a problem. Given the length of the document OFR might say that the summary section is too long. They are inconsistent in their editing of notices, though, so they may say nothing. To be safe, we could put all of the new text in the Summary section into the Supplementary section. Alternatively, given they might not say anything, we could wait and see if we do get this comment. As long as we deal with the comment quickly, if it comes, we should still be able to make the Friday deadline.

Thank you

Please find attached, a proposed revision to the FR Notice for today's discussion. Gary Foley is prepared to provide a timeline and rationale for the extension.

The changes to the original FRN are provided in track changes on the original announcement. We have also highlighted the section pertaining to the peer review meeting for our discussion.

We look forward to our discussions today.
